Master of Philosophy (MPhil) Application Form

Please read the following instructions carefully before completing this form

- (i) Applications for MPhil candidature may be lodged at any time.
- (iii) This is an application form only and does not constitute an enrolment for any course in the university or entitle an applicant to be classified as a student of the university.
- (iv) An applicant accepted as a candidate by the Research Graduate School Committee on behalf of the university must enrol by completing the official enrolment form. Details on enrolment procedures will be sent to successful applicants with a letter offering candidature.
- (vi) Applicants should note that, except with the permission of the Research Graduate School Committee, and only in circumstances it deems exceptional, MPhil candidates may not be enrolled for any other degree, diploma or non-degree subjects during their period of candidature.
- (vii) All MPhil applicants are admitted to candidature on a probationary basis.
- (viii) Applicants should note that they have to meet the attendance/enrolment requirements for MPhil candidates.
- (ix) International students wishing to study on campus in Monash South Africa are required to enrol on a full-time basis.

Documentation

Applicants must provide evidence of their qualifications. This should be an official academic record, showing all subjects attempted, grades achieved (including failures) and an explanation of the grading system. The record must be an official transcript or statement of record from the institution in which these studies were attempted. Result notification slips will not be accepted.

Originals of documents are preferred. Copies are only acceptable if they are certified as being a true copy of an original by a commissioner for declarations, a justice of the peace, a university or college registrar, or other examining authority. If a certified copy is submitted, the original document must be available on request.

Applicants who submit documents in a language other than English must provide an officially certified translation, together with the original documents. Translations supported by uncertified photocopies are unacceptable. Applicants, whose first language is not English, must submit evidence of English language proficiency. See question 8 for details on the evidence required.

All applicants are also required to provide a certified copy of their passport or other evidence of citizenship.

Conditions Relating to Full-Fee Paying International Students studying on-campus

International students accepted on a full-fee basis will be subject to the same regulations as other students enrolled in the course, except that international students studying on-campus on a student visa must be enrolled full-time. International students studying on-campus are also required to have compulsory Overseas Student Health Cover.

Supervision and attendance

Please Note: The following are Monash University minimum requirements and each faculty may impose more rigorous requirements as appropriate. The supervisor and head of the academic unit must certify on the annual progress report that the attendance requirements have been met.

The prescriptions pursuant to regulation 8.1 in relation to students enrolling in a MPhil are as follows:

- (i) For the purposes of regulation 8.1, in order to undertake full-time candidature, a candidate must be able to devote a minimum of four days a week to the pursuit of the research project. In order to undertake part-time candidature, a candidate must be able to devote a minimum of two days per week, with at least one day during work hours, to the pursuit of the research project.
- (ii) Where the candidate is engaged in full-time employment, the head of the academic unit will be required to certify that the candidate is able to spend two days a week in pursuit of the research project as a part-time candidate. A letter from an employer which certifies that the candidate will have the appropriate amount of time available to devote to their research will be required.

The prescriptions pursuant to regulation 16.1 in relation to students enrolling in an Internal MPhil program are as follows:

- (i) The candidate must discuss progress with their supervisor/s at least once every calendar month (part-time) or every two weeks (full-time). This contact may occur using forms of interactive communication
- (ii) The candidate must hold two 'in person' meetings with their supervisor each year (eg at confirmation of candidature presentation and/or during completion of the annual progress report).
- (iii) The candidate must attend the university frequently and on a regular basis.
- (iv) The candidate must attend all such courses, seminars, workshops etc, as are deemed necessary by the head of the academic unit in which the candidate is enrolled.
- (v) The supervisor and head of the academic unit will be required to certify that the requirements for candidature have been met and an annual report of attendance and progress presented.
- (vi) Notwithstanding the above prescriptions, candidates, supervisors and heads of academic units should be aware that successful completion of the MPhil signifies an ability on the part of the candidate to pursue independent research. There should therefore be a progressive reduction in the extent of close supervision during the candidature and particularly in the final years of candidacy.

The prescriptions pursuant to regulation 10 in relation to students enrolling in an external MPhil program are as follows:

- (i) Applicants may apply for external candidature if they do not live within daily commuting distance of the Monash South Africa campus should apply for internal candidature.
- (ii) Regular interactive communication between candidate and supervisor should take place at least once every calendar month (part-time) or every two weeks (full-time) via telephone, video conference, email or other interactive communication. The Research Graduate School Committee will also need to be assured that the candidate and supervisor are able to communicate daily as required.
- (iii) The candidate must attend all such courses, seminars, workshops and conferences (both at Monash and elsewhere), as are deemed necessary by the head of the academic unit.
- (iv) The candidate shall be required to undertake the equivalent of 5 days of full-time study within the university each year or equivalent over the period of candidature (including its research stations and teaching hospitals). Apportionment of these days is to be determined on a case by case basis.
- (v) Where the candidate is engaged in full-time employment, the head of the academic unit will be required to certify at the time of application that the candidate will be able to comply with the residency requirements.
- (vi) Notwithstanding the above prescriptions, candidates, supervisors and heads of academic units should be aware that successful completion of the MPhil signifies an ability on the part of the candidate to pursue independent research. There should therefore be a progressive reduction in the extent of close supervision during the candidature and particularly in the final years of candidacy.

Submitting your application form

8. English proficiency

Sound English language skills are required for academic programs at Monash. Please note that English proficiency requirements for research courses are different from those of undergraduate courses. All applicants may satisfy English language requirements in any of the following ways. Please note that these are the minimum university requirements. Some faculties may have set additional prerequisites.

The university reserves the right to seek additional proof of English proficiency where required. Please place X in the box indicating how you have satisfied the English language requirements for admission to Monash.

First language is English (i.e. originate from a country where English is the only official primary language)

English Test :

Successful completion of the following test and meet the ELP admission requirements:

IELTS, TOEFL(paper based and internet based), Pearson Test of Academic English and Cambridge English. Tests that are taken more than two years prior to application will not be accepted.

An Overview of ELP admission requirements is located at <https://www.monash.edu/graduate-research/faqs-and-resources/content/chapter-two/2-2>, Under English Test, Table 1.

Note: The faculties of Arts, Law, Business and Economics and the Department of Epidemiology and Preventive Medicine have a different English language proficiency(ELP) requirement for English test.

Monash English Bridging (MEB) Program

Completion of the Monash English Bridging Program not more than two years prior to application

Note: The faculties of Arts and Law do not accept applicants via this pathway.

Successful completion of a course of tertiary studies of at least two years' duration conducted entirely in English and involving formal assessment of written work, in a country where English is the official language. Evidence in the form of a letter or certificate issued by the university Registrar's office will need to be provided. Studies must be completed within the five year period prior to application. In the faculties of Arts and Law, studies must be completed within the two year period prior to application. Where studies have been conducted entirely in English and involving formal assessment of written work in a country where English is one of two or more official languages of that country, a case may be made to the Monash Research Graduate School Committee by the relevant department/faculty. The World Factbook located at www.cia.gov/cia/publications/factbook/ lists the official languages of all countries.

Successful completion of a course of tertiary studies of at least two years' duration at Monash's Malaysia or South Africa campus, or an equivalent Malaysian tertiary education campus recognised by Monash University. Studies must be completed within the five-year period prior to application. In the Faculties of Arts and Law, studies must be completed within the two year period prior to application.

9. Research/publications

Provide details of any original research and/or publications. For publications/abstracts, indicate the percentage of your contribution, eg sole (100%), joint (50%), multi authorship (20%), and the nature and standing of the journal/conference. Also indicate whether in press (accepted for publication) or published. (Attach additional sheet if necessary)

State details and attach evidence of training relevant to your ability to pursue the proposed course.

10. Declaration by applicant

The information on this form (including digital images) is collected for the primary purpose of assessing your application for research degree admission. Other purposes of collection include attending to administrative matters, corresponding with you (pre and post application) and statistical analyses. The information collected on this form (including digital images) may be disclosed to government agencies such as the Department of Education.
